

TÜV Rheinland InterCert Ltd.
CIA
(confidentiality, integrity, accessibility)
declaration

The Managing Director of TÜV Rheinland InterCert Ltd. declares that the employees on any organization level of TÜV Rheinland InterCert Ltd. manage confidentially the information obtained during conformity assessment procedures (testing, inspections, certification). TÜV Rheinland InterCert Ltd. informs all the persons enter into legal relationship with it the circle of data to be handled confidentially furthermore the rules of confidential handling and the consequences derived from the violation of them.

No kind of information, data or document cannot be obtained on TÜV Rheinland InterCert Ltd., its employees and /or their customers by third parties without legal court order or authority notice. The customer's data, information, documents can only be issued with the customer's written permission and it is determined in the referred permission.

All employees are obliged to keep confidential information, business secrets obtained in connection with their employment relationship both during and after termination of their employment relationship, too without limitation in time. Employee's obligation is furthermore to handle this confidential information so that it will not be accessible or known for third parties.

The Managing Director of TÜV Rheinland InterCert Ltd. declares that it has employees protect all the information, data obtained during conformity assessment procedures (testing, inspections, certification) against damage, destruction, deletion, modification, unauthorized access.

For all concerned employees of TÜV Rheinland InterCert Kft. the information and data obtained during conformity assessment (testing, inspection and certification) procedures are available and accessible.

Budapest, 30.05.2022

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Zsolt Pesze".

.....
Zsolt Pesze
Managing Director